

The following question has been received from Councillor Nemeth and will be responded to by the Chair at the meeting:

“Does any data yet exist that can be used to make a meaningful comparison between the number of rough-sleepers in Brighton & Hove last winter and the number this winter?”

