Background:

Fast –Track Cities

The Fast-Track Cities initiative is a global partnership between the United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS (UNAIDS), the United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat) and the International Association of Providers of AIDS Care (IAPAC). Fast-Track Cities aims to build upon, strengthen and leverage existing HIV programmes and resources in high HIV burden cities to support their achievement of the UNAIDS 90-90-90 targets by 2020. Further information about the Fast-Track Cities Initiative and its partners can be found at <http://www.iapac.org/cities/>

The Paris Declaration on Fast-Track Cities

As of 1st of November 2015, an additional 52 cities have signed the Paris Declaration committing themselves to attaining the UNAIDS targets by 2020. In signing the declaration, Mayors and Leaders of Council also commit to seven additional objectives:

End AIDS as a public health threat in cities by 2030; Put people at the centre of everything we do; Address the causes of risk, vulnerability and transmission; Use our AIDS response for positive social transformation; Build and accelerate an appropriate response to local needs; Mobilize resources for integrated public health and development; Unite as leaders and work with a network of cities to make this Declaration a reality.

To date no UK city is signed up to the Fast-Track Cities Initiative.
