

Summary of stakeholder comments received to the Queen's Park Area C Parking Review

Who	Object/Supports/Comments	Summary	Officer comments
Resident, Queensway	Objection	Increases costs and inconveniences visitors on Sundays. Council should amalgamate Areas C & H (Hospital Zone) to increase flexibility for residents.	Representations were received from residents, ward councillors and the local hoteliers and guest house association regarding difficulties in residents and visitors to find a space on Sundays. The scheme aims to improve the management of parking on Sundays. The amalgamation of Zones C & H would create too large a zone which is likely to lead to internal commuting.
Resident, Queen's Park	Objection	No parking problems on Sundays. Consultation was confusing as it should not have taken place at the same time as Hanover & Elm Grove Review	Representations were received from residents, ward councillors and the local hoteliers and guest house association regarding difficulties in residents and visitors to find a space on Sundays. The scheme aims to improve the management of parking on Sundays. The consultation took place at the same time as the Hanover review because residents in Hanover may have voted for a Monday to Sunday scheme and this would impact on Queens Park. Residents were made aware of this in the consultation material.
Resident, Freshfield Road	Objection	No parking problems on Sundays. Just a money making exercise.	Representations were received from residents, ward councillors and the local hoteliers and guest house association regarding difficulties in residents and visitors to find a space on Sundays. The scheme aims to improve the management of parking on Sundays. The scheme aims to address current issues. Parking schemes have to be self financing and any surplus must be used for transport projects in accordance with government legislation.

Representations were received from residents, ward councillors and the local hoteliers and guest house association regarding difficulties in residents and visitors to find a space on Sundays. The scheme aims to improve the management of parking on Sundays.
Resident, Park Street	Supports & Comments	Changes will bring it into line with surrounding areas and make it easier to park on Sundays. Visitor permit numbers should be doubled and price cut by half.	Agreed. However it would not be possible to double the number of visitor permits as the area lacks capacity. If the cost was reduced it would not be financially viable and would also create a disparity with other zones.
Resident, Queen's Park Rise	Objection	Would cause displacement into surrounding roads on Sundays. Council should allow me to apply for permits.	See main report paragraphs 4.4 - 4.5
