

Buckley Close, Hangleton, Hove BN3 8EU

The site comprises 48 council garages in a row, of which only one is let.

Buckley Close is a cul-de-sac and neighbouring blocks of council flats are three storeys high. Two storey houses and flats in Chichester Close behind the garages are at a higher level. The retaining wall at the back of the garages increases significantly in height from the south to the north.

